Sprout-Olivier Names Linked in Marriage

Miss Peggy Louise Sprout, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Edgar Sprout, 1327 Beech Ave., was a lovely bride as she walked down the aisle of the St. Andrew's Episcopal Church, on the arm of her father, at four o'clock on Sunday afternoon, July 12, to plight her marriage vows with Arthur Craig Olivier. Parents of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. Bruce C. Olivier of Oakland.

The traditional wedding gown, which the bride had designed and made, was of silk organza over taffeta. It was fashioned with a scoop neckline, which dropped to a V at the back. The bodice and the full skirt were enhanced with French lace appliques. The skirt, with a soft pleated front, fell into a V chapel train. A French lace headpiece held the silk illusion veil and she carried a bouquet of white roses, stephanotis and lace leaves. The bride wore an heirloom locket belonging to her maternal grandmother and a white gold watch, a gift from her bridegroom.

Mrs. David Beard and Miss Linda Sprout served as their sister's honor attendants. Bridesmaids were Misses Barbara Kay Olivier, Pat Miller, and Gladys Gartung. Their gowns, also made by the bride, were of candleglow chiffon over satin. Laura Santee, cousin of the bride, was flower girl. She wore a long candleglow chiffon gown over satin. All of the attendants' bouquets were of coral Paris roses.

Charles Codington stood as best man and ushers were John Codington, Larry Olivier, Lee Savage and David Beard. Alan Santee was ring bearer. Junior ushers were Richard and Chris Olivier.

YOUR PROBLEMS
by Ann Landers

"One Working Set In Each Family"

Dear Ann Landers: I am a 30-year-old man, good-looking, well-built, well-read and well-traveled. I have devoted so much time to cultural interests, music, art, and literature that I neglected the business aspect of my life. As a result I have very little money.

I would like to meet a fine woman and get married but this poses a real problem. I cannot stand homely women and I can't afford to marry a poor one. I have met dozens of women with money but I just can't look at them for more than 10 minutes without feeling it would not be worth it.

The beautiful women I've known are searching for someone who can set them up in style which of course, I cannot.

I am serious about this, Ann. I am not a crackpot. I have many fine qualities and could make a woman very happy. I need some outside help. Do you happen to know of anybody. I will be happy to send a picture.—Q.T.X.

Dear Q.T.X. I HAVE a picture. Please don't send one.

Why don't you forget about both money and beauty and try to find a girl with brains? There should (Continued on Page 30)
